The Modern Parents

FORTUNATELY, SOME OF OUR FRIENDS HAVE STARTED A LOCAL BRANCH OF THE FOREST CRAFT POLIS, A POLITICALLY SOUND YOUNG PERSONS' ACTIVITY GROUP RUN BY PARENTS... THERE'S A CAMP NEXT WEEKEND... CAN I PROPOSE WE PUT THIS TO A VOTE?

I SECOND THE PROPOSAL... SPEECHES AGAINST... NOPE! AGAIN, ALL IN FAVOUR OF CRESSIDA'S PROPOSAL, PLEASE, YOUR HAND...

BUT IAN'S IN THE CUBS.

ONE, TWO... GOOD! THAT'S CARRIED!... AND AS CRESSIDA AND I WILL BE GROUP LEADERS THAT WEEK, WE'LL BE ABLE TO COME TOO!

NOW DOESN'T THAT SOUND LIKE A BETTER IDEA, TARQUIN?... YOU WOULDN'T WANT TO BE A NEO-FASCIST, LIKE IAN, WOULD YOU?

SO, THE FOLLOWING FRIDAY...

RIGHT! WE'VE ARRANGED TO MEET AT THE RECREATIONAL CAMP SITE. IT'S ONLY A TWELVE MILE WALK FROM HERE...

TWELVE MILES? BUT I CAN'T WALK THAT FAR!

DON'T WORRY, DARLING, WE'VE THOUGHT OF THAT...

THERE! A HANDMADE ETHNIC PAPOOSE!

IT'S OK, I THINK I'LL WALK...

MUCH LATER...

WELL, HERE WE ARE! ARE YOU TIRED, DARLING?

YES, AND I'M HUNGRY! HAH! WE GOT ANY BEEFBURGERS FOR TEA?

BEEFBURGERS? OH, TARQUIN! FROM A FEW SIMPLE INGREDIENTS AND A LOT OF LOVE, I MADE THESE FROM THE WOODS... I'M GOING TO MAKE A DESSERT TOO! LAD, WHAT CAN I MAKE YOU ABOUT JUNIOR FOOD?

WELL, I DON'T WANT ANYTHING...

WELL PERHAPS WE SHOULD LEAVE YOU TO ENJOY YOUR OWN CREATIVITY!

YOU COULD MAKE SOME PEACE SYMBOL SCULPTURES FROM THESE STICKS.

I DON'T WANT ANYTHING...

I'VE GOT PAINT IN MY EYES!

SHORTLY...

1'M BORED!

YEAH, LET'S GO AND SEE IF TARQUIN'S MUM AND DAD HAVE GOT SOME BREAKFAST IN THE TENT...

YOUR SALAD MAKES ME ROOM FUNNY...

DECAPITATE DARLING, NOT "POOH"! YOU DON'T USE EASY WORDS...

LATER...

WE ARE HAPPY! WE ARE FRIENDS! THE TREES ARE GREEN! COME ON EVERYBODY, MAKE UP SOME WORDS AND SHOUT THEM OUT! THIS IS FREE MUSIC!... YOU CAN DANCE AROUND TOO!

COME ON EVERYONE, DANCE!

NEXT MORNING...

RIGHT, WE'VE JUST GOT TIME FOR A FACE PAINTING WORKSHOP BEFORE BREAKFAST! I'VE MADE SOME ORGANIC PAINT FROM NATURAL MATERIALS...

UH! THIS STUFF STINKS!

NOW, TOBIS, DO YOU

WANT A FERTILITY DESIGN, LIKE TARQUIN

OR WOULD YOU RATHER BE A TREE GODDESS LIKE CHLOE?

NO, NO, TARQUIN,

IF TARQUIN'S AN ATHEIST, THE CHURCH ON OUR INDIANAPOLIS TRIP IS CREATING GUILT! DON'T

RATHER STUPID AND CRUEL

TO PARTICIPATE IN SUCH A

THING?

CHURCH???

BUT TARQUIN, YOU'RE AN

YOU, TARQUIN?

SO...

YES! WE'D BE DELIGHTED TO

HAVE LITTLE TARQUIN ATTEND OUR GATHERING!

PERHAPS IF HE'D LIKE TO GO DOWN TO THE CENTRE

OF THE CAMP SITE, HE COULD

TAKE PART IN THE CEREMONY...

YOU'D BOTH LIKE TO JOIN

Oh, what a lovely war

I'm sick and tired of people going on about how horrible the war was. Well I was there, and it was bloody great. I rode on a motorbike, went in a plane, and shot three Germans. I had a marvellous time.

Tom Hobson
Sudbury

It seems fashionable these days to "have a go" at the Queen. With her vast personal fortune of £7 billion, her enormous tax free income, her many horses, servants and that great big yacht, she's an easy target for the "knockers". But the Queen has a very difficult job to do, and I for one would not wish to swap places with her.

Mr. J. Connors
Wembley

Fishing for sympathy

I'm fed up with fishermen who go out in trawlers, catch netfulls of fish and then grumble about the size if their catch, claiming that they can't make a living. My grandad used to go fishing, and he'd be happy if he caught one fish, never mind a whole net full.

Could you please help me settle an argument. My brother insists that TV magician Paul Daniels owns the famous Yorkshire tourist attraction Mother Shipton's cave. But I reckon he's just a bald little twat. Which one of us is right?

Paul Gray
Leeds

TV slap-head Daniels

* You can call a truce Paul, because you're both right. Paul bought the cave, near Knaresborough, with its strange petrifying qualities, several years ago. And at a hairless 4'8", the slap headed TV funster is indeed something of a twat. Do YOU have an argument to settle? Perhaps you think TV weathergirl Suzanne Charlton is footballer Bobby's daughter, but a friend insists her dad is brother Jackie. Write to Letterbox and we'll settle your dispute.

From John O'Groats down to Lands End they're the letters to us that YOU do send

In reply to A. Stapleton's letter (Viz 48). Stop knocking the Welsh. I'm Welsh, and it's fucking great. The trouble with Mr. Stapleton is that he's a twat.

A. Hancock
Morriston, Swansea

Where were the Welsh?

On the subject of the Welsh, where were they during the war while we were sat in our bomb shelters waiting for Hitler to invade? They were sitting pretty, in Wales, singing hymns and growing vegetables. That's where they were.

Annoyed
Middlesex

Once again we read the sickening news that a pensioner has been beaten up in their own home by heartless thugs who stole a paltry sixty pence. How awful that a life can be shattered for such a small amount. It wouldn't be so bad if these people would take a reasonable amount – say £40 or £50. And perhaps some jewellery.

A. Anderson
Hereford

I've changed my mind

Having thought about it for a few minutes – I would now be prepared to swap places with the Queen. The jammy old bitch.

Mr. J. Connors
Wembley

What was Paul McCartney thinking of the day he married that Linda woman? She's not exactly an oil painting is she? She spoils all his records, and now the daft cow won't let him eat sausages.

J. Asher
Hampstead

The McCartneys yesterday

I find that my fingers go through expensive toilet rolls just as often as they do when using the cheaper ones. For that reason I use the cheap ones and use the money I save to buy a bar of soap.

Mrs. E. Sharp

When a dog becomes old and infirm it is often the kindest thing to have it put to sleep. In the same way surely it is cruel to keep an old person alive. My father has been lingering in good health now for several years, living alone in a large house in the country. He is now unable to walk more than a few miles before becoming quite short of breath and it is only his many friends, hobbies and interests which keep him going. Surely his family should be entitled to end his suffering and arrange for a doctor to put him out of his misery.

Mr. B. Woodward

"IT'S NO GOOD! I CAN'T WORK OUT THIS HOMEWORK."

"WE'LL HELP!"

"WHO SAID THAT?"

"WE DID!"

"CRUMBS! MY COOKIES HAVE COME ALIVE!"

"SEE - TWO PLUS THREE IS FIVE!"

"WOW - IT'S EASY WITH YOU TO HELP ME!"

NEXT DAY...

"WELL DONE TOMMY! YOU'VE GOT TOP MARKS!"

"LITTLE DOES HE KNOW - IT'S THANKS TO MY BISCUITS!"

They said curiosity killed the cat. Well it didn't. My next door neighbour did.

Linda Longbottom
Walsall

Try doing some work

According to their unions, teachers want higher pay and more esteem for their difficult and highly skilled job. Well perhaps they could earn both if they started working the same hours as normal people instead of going home at 4 o'clock, and gave up 8 weeks or so of their holidays.

Mr. B. McGuire
Hersham

POOR people. Can't afford to eat smoked salmon? Simply eat the rubber off an old table tennis bat.

I. Morris
Tiverton

IF a small child is choking on an ice cube, don't panic. Simply pour a jug of boiling water down its throat, and hey presto! The blockage is almost instantly removed.

Mrs. F. Kippling
Swansea

PRETEND to be Welsh by putting coal dust behind your fingernails, talking gibberish and singing all the time.

Mr. P. Lilburn

IMAGINE you're in London by simply sitting in your car all day with the engine running, occasionally honking your horn, and never actually going anywhere.

G. Foster
Blyth

FREEZE loaves of bread, then sculpt them into animal shapes using a hammer and chisel. Once they've thawed, hey presto! Animal bread zoos figures for the kids.

Mrs. J. Crooks
Grantham

I was amused by A. Gamble's letter (Viz 48) about annoying your neighbours. It was almost as funny as when I first heard it, virtually word for word, twenty three years ago on Marty Feldman's LP "Marty".

J. Wolstenholme
Sheffield

* Well spotted, John. There's a crisp tanner on its way to you. Remember readers, we pay £5 for each letter we publish - and then a tanner to the first person who spots where we stole it from.

I am collecting Shell 'Man in Flight' coins, given free with petrol. Unfortunately my car has been off the road for some time and I do not therefore have occasion to buy a great deal of petrol. I wondered if perhaps some of your readers could help me. I only need 'Louis Bleriot', 'Apollo II' and 'The Wright Brothers' to complete the set, and I am willing to offer the 'Hindenberg' or 'Gordon Banks' in exchange, both of which I have as swaps.

Top Tips

IMPRESS visitors by sitting on their laps, flicking through an animal book and making the appropriate animal noise for each picture.

James Taylor
East Sussex

P.S. This works best if you are under 2 years old.

AVOID bickering and petty arguments by immediately punching anyone with whom you disagree.

S. Taylor
Watford

ANNOY neighbours by buying a TV set exactly like theirs. Then, when they are watching telly, stand outside the window and change the channels using your identical remote control.

Leigh Drake
Portsmouth

MAKE people think you have an expensive car phone by calling them, asking them to repeat everything they say, then hanging up half way through their reply.

Mr. I. Baxter
Exmouth

Look who's talking

In reply to J. Asher's letter (this issue) - look who's talking. I'd rather marry Paul McCartney and live on a big farm and have loads of money like what I have than marry a tuppenny ha'penny cartoonist who can't even draw properly, and spend my time farting round in a cake shop.

L. McCartney
Mull of Kintyre

Be seen, be safe

I almost ran into the back of a slow moving hearse on a main road recently. As the law requires tractors and other slow moving vehicles to display a flashing amber light, would it not be a good idea for hearses to display similar flashing lights? And perhaps as an extra safety feature they could play a loud, catchy tune, like an ice cream van.

A. Rayleigh

TOP TOOPS

Congratulations on your fabulous slap snaps! Britain's baldies are being well and truly spotted by our eagle eyed readers, and competition is hotting up for our main prize of £100 which will be awarded to the best rug-top picture we receive.

Well done to both Stewart Brown and Heather Mellersh, both of whom spotted our first slap head in a local paper. And well done also to Christopher Smith, who entered a fine studio pose of his own dad. Other syrup spotters were S. Griffiths and a joint effort by Tim Fox and his mates in Germany. There's £25 on its way to each of you. Mind you, you know what the post is like these days...

If you see a nylon top, snap him and send the results to Viz Wig Spotting Competition, P.O. Box 1PT, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE99 1PT.

POP IN THE YEAR 2000

First came Elvis – with his tight trousers. Then came the Fab Four, with mop top hair cuts and electric guitars. Then there was the Bay City Rollers, with tartan patches and stack heeled boots.

And now we've got Kylie, with her great big teeth and tiny tits. Yes, the face of pop music is ever changing. Stars rise and fall in the winking of an eye, as the pop roller coaster trundles ever onwards. As well as changing fashions, new technology greatly influences the music scene. '78's were replaced by singles, then singles gave way to '45's. Cassettes replaced albums, and now LPs have given way to the 'CD'.

INSIGHT

So what can the pop pickers of tomorrow expect to listen to? And what kind of stars will be Top of the Pops in the 21st century? Here's a fascinating insight into the amazing space age world of pop in the year 2000.

In the year 2000, the world's top pop event, the Eurovision Song Contest, will be a thing of the past. Instead, space viewers from all over the Universe will tune in on their satellite TVs to watch the Galactic Vision Song Contest. Alien pop groups from all over the cosmos will perform their entries on a show hosted by a silver-wigged Terry Wogan, broadcast live from the BBC Television Centre – on the moon! Co-host Katie Boyle, who'll be a weightless 150 years of age, will have to learn a few new languages. For she will need to converse fluently in over 1,000 space languages, as well as French and German.

Space age Terry

However, some things will never change. Despite the new look contest, nobody will actually watch it, and Norway will still come last.

Cliff yesterday

Everyone knows that the perennial Peter Pan of pop Cliff Richard never ages. He looks exactly the same today as he did when he first shot to stardom in 1952. Indeed, the familiar face of religious Richard will be the only one to survive into the charts of the future. And needless to say, the 84 year old rocker will look exactly the same as he does today, except for even more wrinkles, slightly more leathery skin and a thicker pair of glasses. And a wig.

There'll be no more queueing for pop concerts in the year 2000. Stars of the future will play especially for you – in your own living room! Crafty record companies will use advanced bio-technology to 'clone' their best selling stars. And you'll be able to rent a perfect life-like replica of your pop favourite from the corner shop – for around the same price as a video cassette.

BEDROOM

And the good news is that your favourite star will gladly stay the night, and give you a very special bedroom performance. The only problem is this extra service will cost saucy pop fans an extra £2,000 a night!

Space age stars to play music of the future on purple crystals from Jupiter

Top record companies are already experimenting with genetic technology, and are believed to have produced a prototype clone of teen sensation Chesney Hawkes. However, that experiment was abandoned after the Chesney clone exploded killing a guitarist during a top secret invitation only experimental test gig at a venue in London.

Chesney clone – blew up

Advances in medical science will mean that by the year 2000 pop stars who have been dead for decades – such as Jimi Hendrix, Buddy Holly and Adele Cutler out of The Wurzels – will be resurrected. 'Born again' stars, dug up from their graves and revitalised by scientists using space chemicals – will be able to continue their careers where they left off.

NAPPY

By the year 2000 Elvis will be top of the charts once more, weighing in at 45 stone, dressed in a silver space age nappy, and recording songs in a specially built giant reinforced toilet/studio in the basement of his Gracelands mansion.

Pop stars have always had a reputation for drink and drugs. But the drugs of the future will be a far cry from the powder and pills they take today. In the future all drugs will have been legalised – except marijuana – and to get a buzz in the year 2000 pop stars will simply have to nip into the local newsagent and buy heroin, cocaine or new extra strength space drugs, all of which will be available in a 'firework' form.

INJECTIONS

There will be no sniffing, smoking or injections involved. Pop stars will simply return to the privacy of their hotel rooms, light the blue touch paper, and shove the firework up their arse.

A pop star besieged by groupies yesterday

Of course one great advantage of being a pop star is being able to sleep with lots of groupies. But sadly, by the year 2000 sex will have become a thing of the past. Absolutely everybody will be riddled with AIDS, so sex will have to be done by computer, in special disease proof space greenhouses on the moon.

In years to come record players – and even CDs – will be dusty relics on a museum shelf. Gone will be the shiny discs we buy today. For record companies have already spent billions perfecting the new Strip Disc – a long piece of paper containing musical information in the form of a space age bar code. Simply slip the strip into a pocket sized 'DDDD' (Digital Disc Decoder Deck) and out will come octophonic sound, ten times louder than when it was recorded.

Believe it or not, record companies are already working on new technology that will eventually supersede the Strip Disc. By the year 2020 they will have done away with records altogether. Instead fans will buy a 'pop' drink by their favourite band. Simply take a mouthful, and as you swallow your favourite tune will appear in your ears.

ALBUM

Top stars of the future will release their album in three formats - can, bottle or carton. And record companies will boost their summer sales with special limited edition ice pops.

The cumbersome instruments which pop stars carry with them on tour - drums, guitars and pianos - will all be consigned to the rubbish heap of tomorrow by the year 2000. Musicians of the future will need only one walnut sized special purple space crystal, mined on Jupiter, and capable of playing all their music. They will simply think the tunes into the crystal, and it will glow and throb, and the tunes will appear, along with a low, rhythmic, humming sound, like on the Tomorrow People.

Scientists from EMI Records are already planning a space voyage to Jupiter to find out whether these crystals actually exist or not.

Radio One jocks in the year 2000

Turn on your tranny in the year 2000 and you may be surprised to hear the familiar voices of all your favourite Radio One FM jocks. For in order to preserve their popular but ageing DJs, Radio One controllers will use Dr. Who style technology, removing and pickling their brains before wiring them up to electronic voice boxes. Like the Daleks, the DJ's brains will live in robot bodies, and slide around the corridors of Broadcasting House, bumping into things.

FREE ALBUM!

Here it is! Your free STRIP DISC - the shape of things to come in the year 2000. Just cut out and keep this strip of paper. Then, when the technology eventually becomes available, simply pop it into your Digital Disc Decoder Deck and voila! Sit back and enjoy Phil Collins at his best.

NEW HOPE FOR TRAGIC COUPLES

Top medical scientists are on the verge of a dramatic breakthrough that will bring to an end years of suffering for many unfortunate families throughout Britain.

For pregnant mothers will soon be able to undergo a simple test that will reveal whether or not the baby they are carrying will be ginger.

OPTION

And if the test proves positive, parents will then have the humane option of terminating the pregnancy at a very early stage.

BELLA

The revolutionary test has been developed using advanced technology pioneered during the Gulf war.

BEST

And if successful, the new 'radar style' scanning operation will bring to an end the suffering of millions of families throughout Britain whose children, due to a freak of nature, have pale skin, ginger hair and freckles.

Tragic Kinnock
-ginger and Welsh

Experts hope that the new scan will be available free in all NHS hospitals by the year 2000. Meanwhile, a spokesperson for the British Medical Association - a sort of club for top doctors - said he was 'cautiously optimistic' about the news.

WOMANS WORLD

Tragically, in Scotland, a staggering 1 in 3 babies are born with, or quickly develop, ginger hair. And a lot of men wear skirts.

You? ASK WE? ?? ANSWER

"How come the sun is yellow, yet the sky is blue?" asks I. Fell of Gosforth.

Just like a rainbow, ordinary daylight is made up of colours of the spectrum: red and yellow and pink and green, orange and purple and blue. Light always travels in straight lines, however the sun is a circle. In much the same way water, when examined in a glass appears see through or white, but looks blue when it's in the sea.

Now check your answers carefully. If you bothered to answer all the questions you must be a complete burk.

O.K., check your pockets instead. If you can't find a Young Person's Coach Card with your name and photograph on it you're seriously stupid. Not only are you not getting around 30% off already low fares on all our coach services, you also don't have a photograph of yourself to look at when you get depressed or downhearted.

Remedy: Get one soon, you'll feel better and so will we.

TEARS OF THE T.V. CLOWNS

We all recognize the smiling faces of our favourite comedy stars. They bring happiness into our living rooms. Like the sun, they lighten up our lives with laughter.

But behind the smiles many of Britain's top TV funny men cry the tears of a clown. For all too often tragedy has marred the lives of the top comics, and secret sorrow haunts them.

Indeed HEARTACHE is the baggage they must carry on their lonely journey to success. For when the cameras stop rolling, laughter turns to tears for the TV funny men.

Tragic Bernard

Blue comic's real-life blues

When tubby sexist comedian BERNARD MANNING tells a joke, his audience cry with laughter. But deep down inside the 42-stone funny man is crying tears of heartache.

SHERMAN

For two years ago Bernard was all set to purchase his dream home. But then, tragically, the sale fell through.

CHIEFTAIN

Pie eater Manning, 37, first saw the house advertised in his local newspaper. An eight bedroomed farmhouse in Cheshire, it looked ideal. He viewed it the next day, and immediately made an offer, subject to survey.

CHALLENGER

The stone built house in 7 acres of grounds, with a conservatory, garaging for 4 cars, and a small shed suitable for keeping chickens.

ENTERPRISE

Mannings offer of £340,000 – just below the asking price – was accepted by the vendors. All looked well, and the sweaty star was so confident he even measured up for curtains. Then tragedy struck.

Manning received a phone call at his Embassy Club in Manchester. The sale was off. The vendors had received a better offer. Manning had been gazumped.

KLINGONS

To his credit, the fat star has picked himself up off the floor and got on with rebuilding his life, trying to put the disappointment behind him. But no amount of pies, beer or chips can remove the bitter taste from his mouth. Behind the smile, the sweat and the layers of fat, Bernard's heart is still broken.

Tragic Ben

Brave Bernie's secret suffering

The recent tragic death of BERNIE WINTERS robbed the comedy crown of one of its finest jewels. For in his life Bernie, and his comedy dog Schnorbitsz, gave us endless hours of laughter. But throughout his sparkling show business career, Bernie hid a tragic secret from his closest friends.

HEARTACHE

For during his early childhood, Bernie's pet cat was run over by a car.

Lesser stars may not have survived the heartache and the sorrow. But so brave Bernie fought back the tears so that his millions of fans could enjoy laughter.

PRIVATE

"Bernie never really recovered from the loss of his pet cat", one showbiz insider told us. "Every now and then, even at the height of his success with 'The Mike and Bernie Winters Show', he would let slip a tear." But Bernie refused to burden colleagues with his private grief, as one star who shared a pantomime stage with him confirmed.

CORPORAL

"I worked with Bernie in pantomime on several occasions, and he never once mentioned his cat", they told us.

COLONEL

Now, like his cat, and his comedy dog Schnorbitsz, Bernie Winters is no longer with us. But his legacy – the legacy of laughter – will live forever.

MAJOR

To see him perform on stage the man seems completely unflappable. But behind that bold, brash facade hides the REAL Ben Elton. A Ben Elton racked by private pain. A Ben Elton who carries the burden of a broken heart.

HESELTINE

Ben was only 15 when he fell in love with a girl he'd met at school. But it was love destined to end in tragedy.

PATTEN

For despite writing her several love letters, the girl that Ben fancied didn't want to go out with him.

Ben laughs to hide the tears

They call him 'Motor-mouth'. With a tongue like a machine gun, razor sharp cockney comic BEN ELTON knocks audiences dead with his 100 mile an hour delivery. And he's a star writer too, with hundreds of hit TV shows and best selling books to his name.

ENTERPRISE

But brave Ben battled back, throwing himself into a career as an alternative comic and script writer. However, close friends believe the snappy dressing funny man has never fully recovered from the pain of that rejection. Despite phenomenal success and subsequent relationships with other women, the ghost of that love that never was still haunts him.

And no matter how loud the laughter of his audience, that ghost will always be waiting in the wings.

Heartache of the T.V. jester

JEREMY BEADLE's zany TV pranks have made him Britain's favourite telly jester. He lights up our living rooms with his inimitable grin.

JAPES

But while Jeremy's japes have brought a smile to our hearts, Beadle himself is doomed to a life of eternal sadness. For away from the bright lights of TV, the real Jeremy Beadle is in constant mourning.

JOKER

Tragedy struck the oddly shaped practical joker in early childhood when so-sad Jeremy suffered the loss of his closest pal. The Beadle family were on a boating holiday on the Norfolk Broads when young Jeremy slipped on the wet deck and almost fell into the water. Luckily he was able to save himself, but a teddy bear which he was carrying at the time fell overboard.

Despite desperate efforts by Mr and Mrs Beadle to save the cuddly toy, it floated away down stream, never to be seen again.

RIDDLER

As he grew up, Beadle always left a candle of hope burning in the window of his head – the hope that some day his treasured teddy would return. And that candle still burns. Some say it is the driving force behind successful TV shows like 'Beadle's About'. But 32 years after that tragic boating holiday, the pain is still there for Jeremy Beadle, as one cleaner from London Weekend Television confirmed.

Tragic Beadle

PENGUIN

"They'd just finished recording one of his shows and I was cleaning up the studio. I thought I heard his all gone home, then I heard this sobbing coming from Mr Beadle's dressing room. I looked around the door and there he was, head in hands, crying like a baby."

TWIX

I asked him what was wrong, and he looked up at me, wiping the tears from his eyes, and said 'I want my teddy'".

Desert Island Sweet Trolley

Each week we ask a well known celebrity to imagine that they have been stranded on a desert island. Then we invite them to fill an imaginary dessert trolley with six favourite desserts they would most like to take with them.

This week's choice is by television broadcaster SUE LAWLEY.

Next week's guest will be playwright Alan Plater.

1. Gateau au Chocolat
2. Lemon Souffle
3. Brandy Snaps with Cream
4. Bailey's Cream Blancmange
5. Strawberry Palmiers
6. Walnut Meringue

We want every reader to send A POUND to Captain Morgan's Fighting Fund. That's all it would take to reach our target of £10,000. Send your donations to The Captain Morgan and his Hammond Organ Fighting Fund Appeal

"SPITFIRE" McGuire
& his home-made mini-plane in
JERRY TAKES A PASTING

It's 1945 - and once again the Hun are being given what-for by the brave flyers of England's RAF. Flying each night from their Lincolnshire airfields deep into the black heart of Germany's Rhineland to deliver their deadly payloads of high explosive, these giants of the sky return each morning riddled with bullet holes and torn by Nazi flack.

At the controls of his Lancaster bomber, Wing Commander Tommy "Spitfire" McGuire released his last bomb and headed back for blighty.

But the game was not yet lost. Displaying English bulldog grit, McGuire set to work assembling his home-made mini-plane from the kit of parts he kept in his parachute back-pack.

Within seconds the prefabricated craft was assembled and the engine was running.

With inches to spare, McGuire pulled out of his dive...

Expertly, McGuire flew his midget craft under the belly of Von Umlaut's fighter...

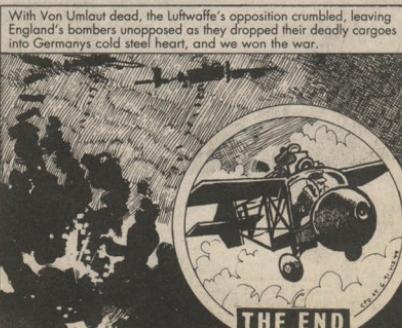

Without fuel, the German's ME109 stood no chance, and plummeted back towards the airfield.

Minutes later, the hospital guard was surprised as McGuire flashed out of nowhere towards the main doors, still at the controls of his micro-plane.

In Von Umlaut's ward...

"Daddy – I've done a poo-poo"

An exclusive prestige unique collector's doll hand crafted of fine bisque porcelain.

The innocence of childhood. A magical moment captured for all time.

"Daddy – I've done a poo-poo" is a genuine limited edition, lovingly crafted heirloom quality set, comprising of doll and stool, by renowned artist Sid Johnson.

The charming doll has been painstakingly hand painted with a half inch emulsion brush to capture the sweet innocence of infant incontinence. The clothes are delicately machine stitched by hand using authentic reproduction synthetic materials, then carefully hand 'soiled' by our studio artist. The stool itself is crafted in exquisite detail, cast of fine quality china, and carefully glazed for that 'freshly dumped' look.

Each hand numbered doll comes with a corresponding Certificate of Authenticity – and has been awarded the Premiere Grade of Excellence rating for craftsmanship and artistry by the Tacky Doll, Plate and Statuette Manufacturers Guild.

This truly delightful figure is an exclusive edition from the Johnson & Bloggs Galleries available only to readers of this magazine, their friends, relatives, or anyone else who wants one. Production will be strictly limited to however many dolls we can sell, after which no more will be made. To order "Daddy – I've done a poo-poo" simply return the Special Reserved Purchase Entitlement Certificate below.

YOUR GUARANTEE

"Daddy – I've done a poo-poo" will be sent to you on 30 days home approval. If the doll fails to meet your expectations, then you simply throw it in the bin. No quibbles. We regret that your money cannot be refunded.

Please note – this reproduction is clearly inferior to the actual dolls (which have not yet arrived from Taiwan)

Billy the Fish.

DESPITE BEING BORN HALF MAN/HALF FISH, YOUNG BILLY THOMSON HAS TO WEAR THE KEEPER'S JERSEY AT FULCHESTER - UNTIL HE'S OWNED BUT - AS THEY PREPARE TO KICK-OFF IN THE F.A. CUP FINAL, RUTHLESS TYCOON MAXWELL BAXTER STEPS IN TO ACCUSE THE TEAM OF FRAUD!

THOSE FULCHESTERS UNFORTUNATELY DON'T HAVE ANY OF THE VOICES OF THE FULCHESTER UNION SQUAD - AS I BELIEVE I SAID AT THE END OF THE LAST ISSUE...

WAIT A MINUTE! THIS ISN'T THE REAL MAXWELL BAXTER. IT'S YET ANOTHER CARDBOARD CUT-OUT.

RIGHT, CAN WE GET ON NOW PLEASE? WE DON'T WANT TO GET THIS MATCH STARTED IF IT'S AT ALL POSSIBLE!

TOP NORTH LONDON TEAM ARSENAL HAVE THE RUN OF THE EARLY PLAY AND BILLY'S SOON COMES UNDER PRESSURE...

GEOGRAPHIC CHARLIE HAS THE BALLS!

THE SCRUFFY MOR-TOPI SHOOTS...

WAKE ME UP WHEN THEY THINK OF ANOTHER JOKE

LOOKS LIKE IT'S ONE-NIL TO THE BUMMERS, EH BOSS?

BUT... IT'S ALRIGHT SON!

THEY ONLY HAD A BOX OF SOUTH AFRICAN ORANGES LEFT

I SO - WE'RE HAVING FISH INSTEAD HELP YOURSELVES EVERYONE!

OH GREAT... I LOVE A BIT OF FISH, ME... CHOMP... I'M NOT ALLOWED IT AT HOME.

MUNCH

SO BOSS - WHAT'S THE REACTION HERE TO OUR SINGLE "SINGALONG PULCHESTER UNITED" BEEN LIKE?

I HAVE A REPORT HERE FROM THE PUBLICITY COMPANY...

IT ALSO RECEIVED A LATE-NIGHT PLAY ON "TWO COUNTIES RADIO" WHEREVER THAT IS.

AND ALREADY - AFTER ONLY 8 WEEKS ON SALE - WEVE SOLD ONE COPY MALORDER!

I CHOKED ON THE BONES YOU KNOW.

WELL BILLY... PRETTY GOOD ON THE WHALE.

APPARENTLY EVERY RADIO DISC JOKEY IN THE COUNTRY - WITH THE EXCEPTION OF RADIO LEGEND MARTIN KELNER HAS REFUSED TO PLAY IT.

APPARENTLY ONE LISTENER WROTE IN THE FOLLOWING WEEK REQUESTING THE SONG TO BE PLAYED AGAIN.

THAT'S RIGHT BILLY.

SUDDENLY... COUGH!! COUGH!! CRAG! STUTTER!!

CRUMBS, THE QUEEN MUM IS CHOKING ON SOMEBODY HELP QUICKLY!

EEURGH! EE URGH!

PROFESSOR WOLFGANG SCHNELL BSC. PHD. COMES TO THE RESCUE...

ZE FISH IS LODGED HERE - IN ZE DESOPHAGUS UND DUE TO ITS SIZE IT IS ALSO BLOCK-INK ZE WINDPIPE OR TRACHEA.

HMM IT'S A PROBLEM.

WHAT DO YOU SUGGEST WE DO, PROFESSOR?

WEIL HYPERBOLIZE ZETH BY REMOVING ZE FISH FROM ZE ZEORT. VIE SEN VONCE AGAIN RE-ESTABLISH ZE PASSAGE BUT WITH TUBES AND HENCE ALLOW ZE QUEEN MUM TO BREEZE.

WHAT'S THAT?

PHEW SYD! I THOUGHT THAT FISH HAD ME NUMBER ON IT!

SHORTLY...

HEY! THAT FISH WAS LOVELY, I'M QUITE SURPRISED.

YAWN - ME TOO.

AND ME.

ME ALSO.

SO...

ZZZ

CHANGING ROOM FUFC

ZZZ-ZZZ

SOME TIME LATER...

SYD! SYD!

THERE THERE YOUR MAJESTY. JUST TAKE IT EASY.

ME TOO. IN FACT I COULD DO WITH FORTY WINKS.

ALRIGHT LADS - WE'LL ALL HAVE 5 MINUTES NAP.

WAKE UP SYD! WE'RE OVERSTUFFED!

CRUKEY BOSS! IT'S SEVEN O'CLOCK! I MUST HAVE FORGOTTEN TO SET MY ALARM.

THERE'S NOBODY HERE.

NO...

WELL HAVE MISSED THE SECOND HALF!

WHERE YE YOU LOT BEEN? EVERYONE THOUGHT YE'D GONE HOME. THE GAME WAS AWARDED TO ARSHOLE BY DEFAULT!

ADVERTISING

OH NO, WHAT A SICKENER, EH BOSS?

YES I'VE ALWAYS HATED MOUNTAIN BIKE.

IS THERE NOTHING WE CAN DO?

HMM IF ONLY WE COULD TURN BACK THE HANDS OF TIME.

THEY'VE ALL GONE TO BUY MOUNTAIN BIKES TO CELEBRATE! THEY'VE GONE TO BUY IT ON CREDIT! THE MOUNTAIN BIKE, NEWTON! OPEN UP, MATE!

AND HARDY CYCLES, TODAY'S THE DAY, BOSS! I TALKING ABOUT THE MOUNTAIN BIKE.

YES BUT I...

UND SO SEE KEN BOSS! USING ZIS TIME MACHINE (WHICH APPEARED BRIEFLY IN ISSUE FORTY-ONE)

RIGHT THEN PROFESSOR - LET'S GO!

NO BOSS, VURST I MUST DO ZE CALCULATIONS...

YOU ARE IN GERMANY - FIFTY YEARS AGO! FOR YOU TODAY ZE VAR IS OVER.

CRUMBS - WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO NOW, BOSS?

THERE'S NO TIME FOR THAT - I'VE GOT TO PULLING THE LEVER!

CRUMBS - WHERE ARE WE?

AND FOR YOU SYD ALSO...

FUFC

CRUMBS - WHERE ARE WE GOING TO DO NOW, BOSS?

CRUMBS - WHERE ARE WE GOING TO DO NOW, BOSS?

CRUMBS - WHERE ARE WE GOING TO DO NOW, BOSS?

CRUMBS - WHERE ARE WE GOING TO DO NOW, BOSS?

WILL MANCHESTER ESCAPE TO VICTORY? DON'T MISS THE NEXT EPISODE - GUEST STARRING BOBBY MOORE, PELE, SYLVESTER STALLONE, AND MICHAEL CAINE, WITH SPECIAL GUEST STARS ODESTE ARDILLES AND SOME REALISTIC 1940'S FRENCHMAN IN FLAKES AND WHITE TRAINING PIRES.

SELF-MADE MILLIONAIRE REVEALS SECRETS

Five years ago, I was lucky enough to meet a man who had started life with £2 and had become a self-made multi-millionaire. He taught me that it is not how hard you work that counts (many people work hard all their lives, but have nothing to show for it). He shared with me his most closely guarded secrets. By following his advice, I was able to become a millionaire within 3 years. If you seriously want to become wealthy, send me your name and address, and I will send you an amazing information pack free of charge.

What you do now is up to you. If I am wrong all you have wasted is a few minutes and a postage stamp. But what if I am right?

THE CURSE OF CORONATION

Stars of Britain's longest running TV soap are living in fear after an uncanny catalogue of catastrophe has hit members of the cast of the top rated show.

"There's a curse on The Street and I just know that something terrible is going to happen", said one terrified star who refused to be named.

BIZARRE

Over recent years, in a series of bizarre coincidences, events that have taken place on screen have been uncannily echoed in real life.

REAR-END

* Actress Madge Hindle, alias Street star Renee Roberts, was written out of the script in an horrific car crash. Only 18 months later Madge was involved in a rear-end shunt at a roundabout in Ilkley. Fortunately the actress was unhurt, but her car suffered £80's worth of damage.

* Only months after script writers penned a scene in which Mavis Wilton's budgerigar died, a double tragedy struck. Actor Bill Waddington, alias Street busybody Percy Sugden, returned to his Osset home to find one of his tropical fish had died. Fifty years earlier, almost to the month, Roy Barraclough's pet dog had been run over by a car.

* Not long after newcomers Jim and Liz McDonald moved into the Street, actor Charles Lawson's real-life brother-in-law put his house up for sale.

SOAP

In 30 years of writing the hit soap script writers have often included story lines concerning marriage break-ups, death and baby dramas - which then come true off-screen.

SHAMPOO

Only years before the break-up of his screen marriage to actress Sue Barlow, actor Mike Baldwin, alias the Street's loveable cockney rogue, romeo rat Johnny Briggs, suffered a real-life argument with his wife Christine.

Although their marriage was in no danger, actor Mike slept on the settee two nights running.

T.V. soap stars fear for their lives

Soap star Jackie Ingman alias the Street's Sharon Taylor (real-life actress Jackie Baldwin) as the soap's loveable romeo rogue (inset) actor Ronnie Biggs, better known to viewers as rag trade rat Ken Baldwin alias on-screen actor Bill Roach yesterday

A scene in which his Street character died of a heart attack signalled a real-life drama for actor Tony Osoba. Real-life Tony, alias on-screen textile boss Pete Ingram, collapsed and died in romeo rat Johnny Baldwin's office.

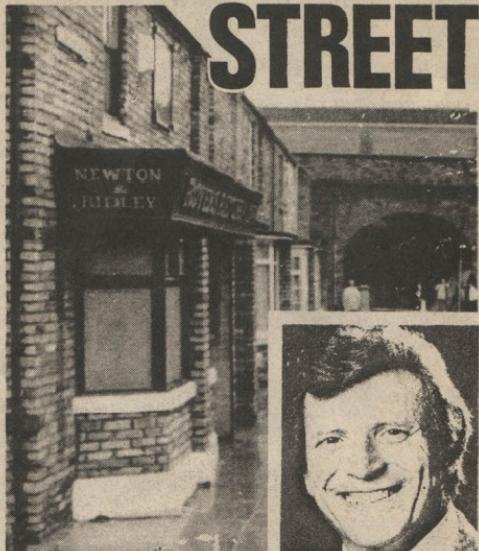

Only days later, after a round of golf with friends, actor Tony suffered mild chest pains.

SHOWER GEL

Luckily it was a false alarm. Doctors confirmed that Tony was suffering from indigestion as a result of eating his breakfast too quickly. But Tony is still left trembling with fear every time he gets heartburn or flatulence.

BUBBLE BATH

Terrified stars are now pleading with Street bosses to have scripts changed rather than tempting fate. Elizabeth Dawn, alias The Street's Vera Duckworth, successfully begged the show's producers to have a scene in which she visited the opticians written out of the script. For the actress feared she might go blind in real life if the scene were broadcast.

Ironically that scene was replaced by one in which the Duckworth's house was flooded. The next day Dawn, 53, found a tap dripping in her Cheshire house. Not even her local plumber was able to explain the mysterious coincidence.

CURSE

However, the Curse of Coronation Street has not always been bad news for the stars. Some of the uncanny coincidences have happy consequences. For example when actress Barbara Knox, alias Street Star Rita

Fairclough, won a three minute trolley dash in the soap's Bettabuys supermarket.

PERIOD

Incredibly, the event was mirrored in real life. For the very next day actress Barbara won a three minute trolley dash in her local super-market.

RAG WEEK

And just like her generous on-screen character, big-hearted Barbara donated all her winnings - over £30's worth of groceries - to charity.

TOP TEN GOES TO THE DOGS

Mr. Bennett hosts

'Take Heart' chart

in aid of waggy tailed charity

Vizki's still on holiday, and so he's invited me, Mr. Bennett (from BBC TV's 'Take Hart') to present the Top Ten chart which this week is in aid of the National Canine Defence League's Annual Dog Cartoon Awards 1991 sponsored by Spillers 'Boneyo'.

And what a chart we've got lined up for you, with a record haul of over £400 cash - some of which will be going to the N.C.D.L. who last year saved over 5000 dogs from being destroyed. That's a lot of dogs, eh pop pickers?

Top of the chart thanks to a thumping £120 bribe comes Leo Sayer lookalike CHARLIE CHUCK. Comic Charlie can be seen on tour this summer at Yarmouth, Scarborough and Blackpool, and a video of his comic capers can be had for £10 (inc. P&P) from Video Box, 76-78 Leicester Road, Wigston Magna, Leicestershire, LE5 1DR.

Charlie Chuck

We rang pop's Leo Sayer at his West London recording studio to gauge his reaction to his lookalike's Top Ten appearance, but he was too busy to come to the phone.

Leo lookalike Charlie could have saved himself a few bob had he known that second placed THE SQUARES had only forked out £51. The Poole based Squares are touting their cassette for a mere £3.50 (inc. P&P) from Rosemount Records, 6 Constitution Hill Road, Poole, Dorset, BH14 0QY.

In third place comes an unusual entry - a stage musical from the NATIONAL HEALTH THEATRE CO. They're three doctors (probably communists) who 'opted out' of the National Health Service to perform their hilarious production 'It's a mad, mad, mad, mad ward' at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Catch them at The Pleasance Theatre on August 22, 24, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31, kick off at 11.30 pm.

N.H.T.C.O. - in at 3

Since appearing in our last chart CAPTAIN METHANE has been performing to blow out audiences the length and breadth of the Macclesfield area. The man with the gift of the guff reports that videos of his fuming act are selling like hot cakes. Why not treat yourself to thirty minutes of anal action on VHS cassette, available for less than the price of a few dozen tins of beans. Send £10 (inc. P&P) to Paul Oldfield, 'The Gas Cave', 2 Monsall Drive, Macclesfield, Cheshire, SK11 7DP.

Elsewhere in the chart ANDREW TAIT returns with a warning that he's soon to perform 'Apocalypse Cow' on Channel 4 TV. Look out for the programme - 'Elements - Wind and Water', due to be screened 'in early August, probably some time during the day'.

The Gutterband

1	CHARLIE CHUCK The Life and Times of	£120.00
2	THE SQUARES The French Lieutenant's Pig	£51.00
3	NATIONAL HEALTH THEATRE CO. It's a mad, mad, mad, mad ward	£50.00
3	CAPTAIN METHANE Live at the Farmers Arms	£45.00
5	BIG BLOCK 454 'Know what this is?'	£31.23
6	ANDREW TAIT Apocalypse Cow	£30.30
7	PAINT IT RED July/August 1991 issue	£30.02
8	A-R-T Mission Unlikely	£26.12
9	THE GUTTERBAND These boots are made for stomping	£26.00
10	KYLIE MINOGUE Shocked	£25.31

PAINT IT RED magazine mark their 50th issue with a debut appearance in our chart. The listings magazine, produced and sold entirely in the North East, will be of little or no interest to the majority of our readers, but it's their money...

A-R-T's Tone tells us that their single is available for only £2 from him at 7, Iris Brook House, Talbot Yard, Southwick, London SE1 1XT.

Gary Gutter's world famous GUTTERBAND stomp into the chart at No. 9, complete with silver stack heel boots and star spangled codpiece. The eight strong line up consists of Gary, his dual drummers Malice Pooper and Aladdin Pain, guitarists Roy Wouldn't and Joe Waddywaddy, Ziggy, fire, eater Audi Quattro, plus Gary's dad Brian. You can probably book the band through their management Alan Wood Agency on Sheffield (0742) 580338.

Just squeezing in at 10 is a surprise guest in the delightful form of KYLIE MINOGUE. Welcome to the Viz Top Ten, Kylie. The Aussie songstress makes her Viz chart debut thanks to an anonymous fan who sent in a £26.31 bribe on her behalf. The dainty Antipodean songbird was reported to be "delighted" when she heard the news. Despite making millions from Kylie's records, tight arsed Hit Factory bosses Stock, Aitkin and Waterman have so far sent NO CASH AT ALL to the Viz Top Ten. But now, thanks to the kindness of a fan, Kylie's dream has come true.

Anyone else who wants to send in a bribe on behalf of a star they fancy or particularly like is welcome to do so. But please send cash bribes only - no cheques. All chart entries should be sent to Viz Top Ten, P.O. Box 1PT, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE99 1PT. But remember - CASH ONLY. No cheques, no foreign currency, no unusual gifts, no farting about. We just want the money, the name of the artist, and the name of the record, tape etc.

Well, that's all from the Top Ten this time, brought to you in aid of the N.C.D.L.'s Annual Dog Cartoon Awards 1991 sponsored by Spillers Boneyo. If you're a cartoonist living in the UK, why not enter the competition? You could win a weekend for two at a hotel somewhere. Cartoons can be any size, black and white or colour, and on the theme of 'Rovers Return'. Send them to The National Canine Defence League Annual Dog Cartoon Awards 1991, 1 Pratt Mews, London, NW1 0AD, to arrive by September 20th. And there could be an extra £100 prize if you can somehow incorporate Spillers 'Boneyo' dog food into your cartoon. (Please enclose a SAE if you want your cartoon to be returned.) Get scribbling, pop pickers!
